2020

SCIENCE FICTION, SUPERHEROES, FANTASY AND FUN!

The Emperor's Palace, China. 300BC.

I want to build a wall!

You, my warriors, shall go forth to the far reaches of the world...

THE GREAT WALL OF O'BÁLLA

...and bring me back its wall-building secrets!

And so the warriors sailed for many moons...

Look! We have found the land of walls!

... until they came upon a green isle.

These walls are very sturdy.

The Emperor would be most pleased with them...

We must find the wall master who built them.

They journeyed across mountains...

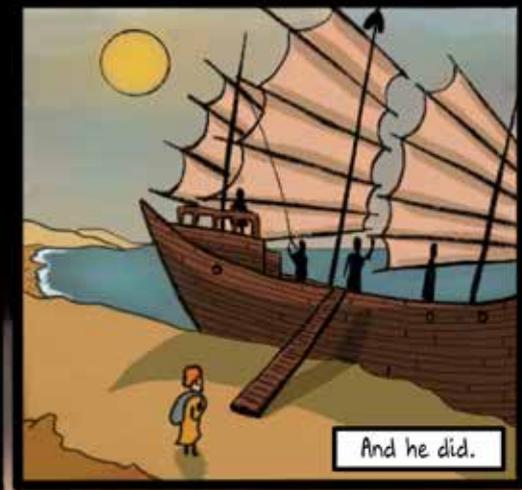

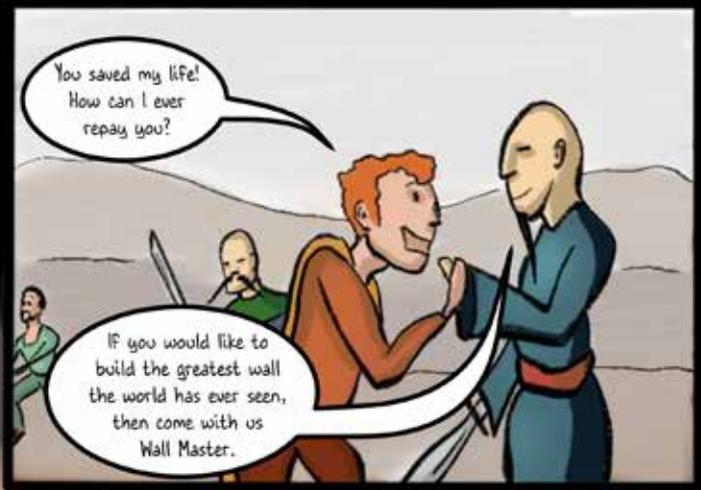

...through fields and through bogs...

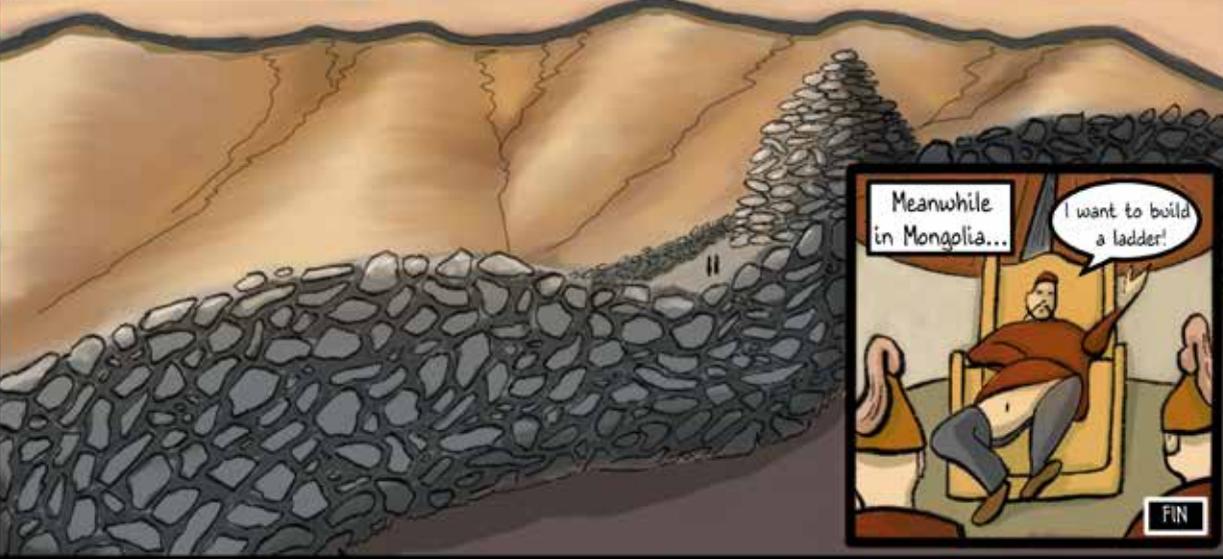

...and so it was that they came upon a small village.

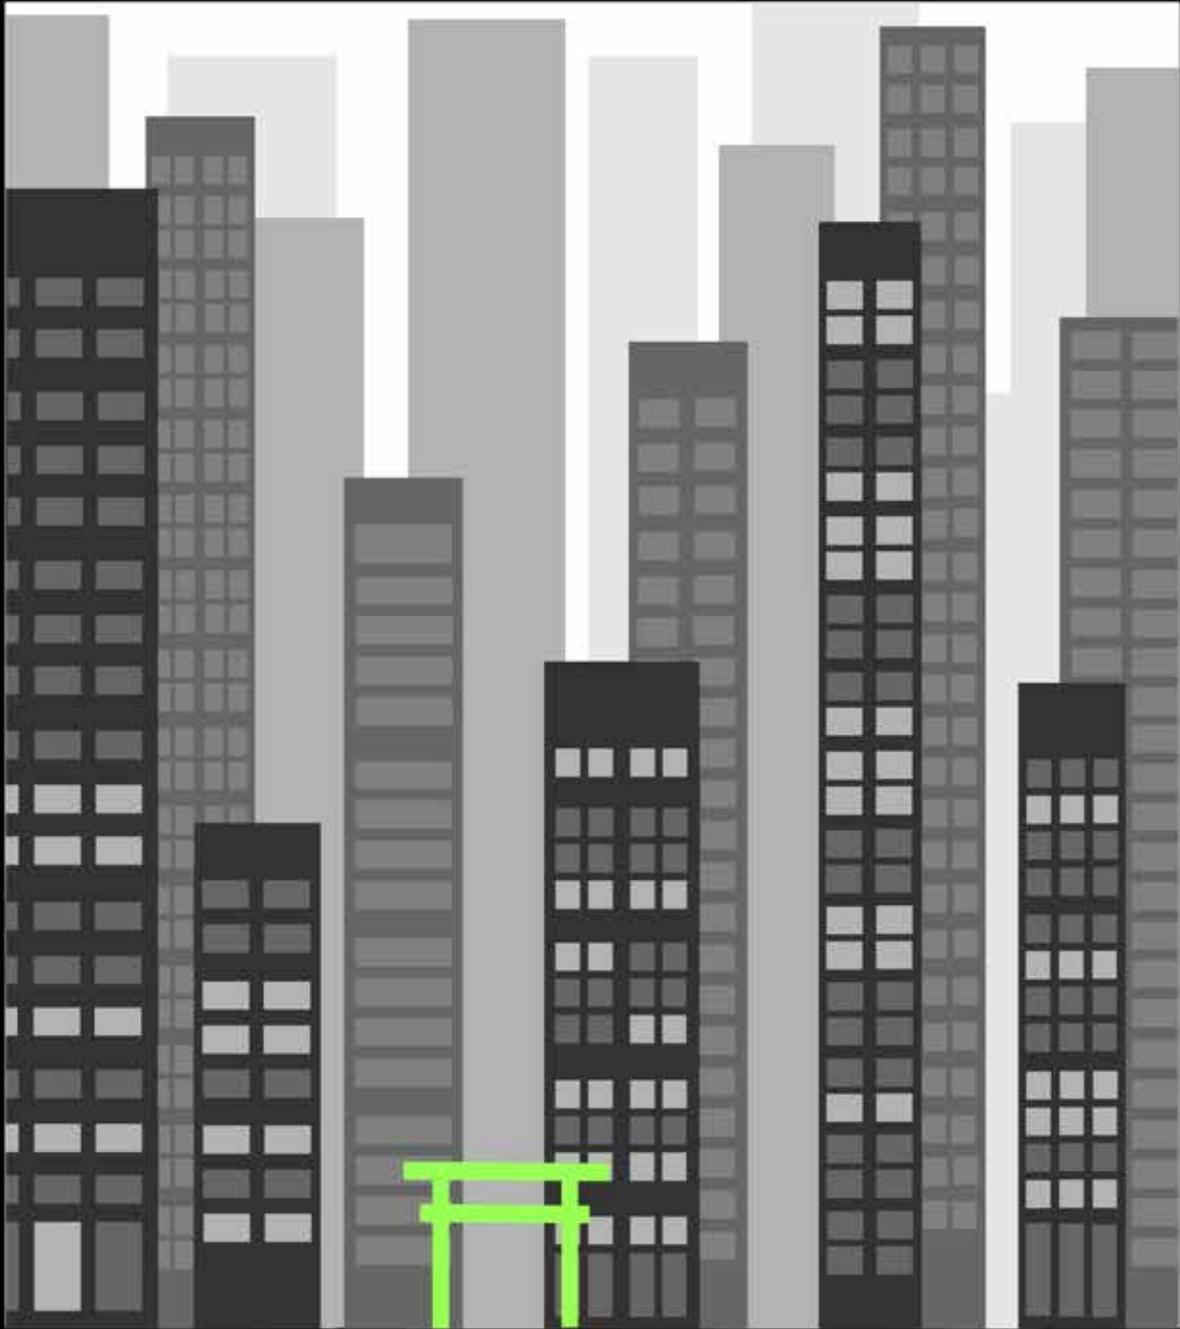

Meanwhile, in the village...

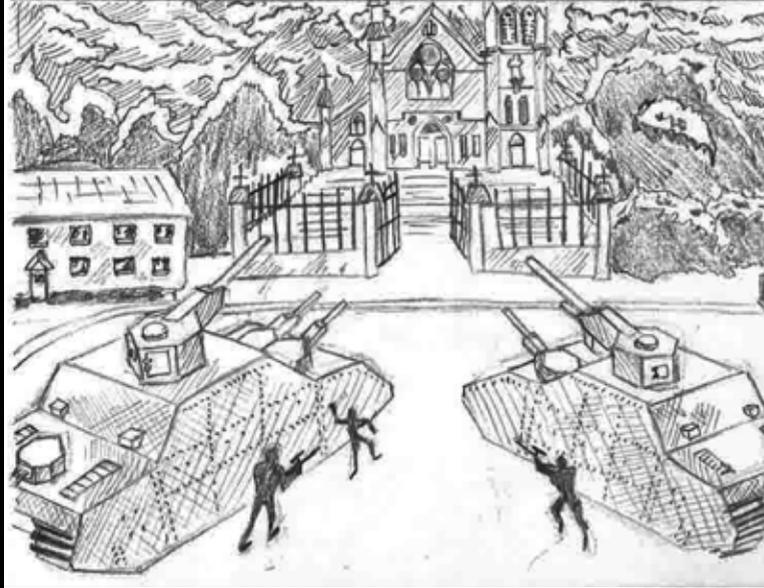

And so the Great Wall was built.
